Definitely a good book to read.

By Corbin Huffman

Had to pick this book up for required readings in a college course. It has definitely expanded on my criminal justice knowledge! Steven Brandl provides his readers with current examples while linking them to the vast area of crime investigations. The imagery is spectacular! I highly recommend this book if you're studying criminal justice or have taken a passive interest in the field. You won't be disappointed!

An interesting, informative read!

By A loyal Amazonian

I was fortunate enough to take a class at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee taught by the author of this book. I found the book (and the class) very informative. The book is written in a logical format with case studies that make for interesting reading. I recommend this text for anyone interested in learning more about criminal investigations or instructors looking for a comprehensive text for their students. This text is worth the price.
