The Modern Church in a Period of Transition

By Richard R. Blake

Dr. Mark Chironna fervently calls the modern church to usher in an era of double-portion anointing in his book "The Power of Passionate Intention: The Elisha Principle." Chironna blends Kingdom Living, the emotions, and the intellect. His writing is engaging, energizing, and enriching.

Thought provoking "Points to Ponder" incite purpose driven and relevant action steps to set in motion personal potential and practical life transforming accomplishments in these times of religious tumult in the church, cultural bigotry in society, and economic uncertainty throughout the world.

Mark's ministry as a certified life coach, public speaker, author, and pastor is recognized and highly endorsed by well known Christian leaders, pastors, counselors, and educators globally.

The Power of Passionate Intention "The Elisha Principle"

By S. Augustine

Author, Mark Chironna helps believers to study and understand what Elisha's intent was as he pursued Elijah's mantle. He uses scripture and a prophetic perspective to challenge the church to develop a stonger desire to intamacy with Christ. The book gave me a greater understanding of the role that these two prophets play/played in advancing God's kingdom here on earth. The book is written in a way that is easy to follow and the reader should come away with a greater thirst to seek first the kingdom of heaven.

power

By Dottie Miley

Good book on getting prepared for the next move of God. We need to be ready to move on with God. Our daily lives need to be following God's lead. We need to quit holding on to the "good old days" and move forward with God.
